

CHAPEL DVD'S

While delving into the archives we have found some VHS videos which we have converted to DVD.

If you are interested in any of these please register on the form below. Prices depend on numbers but as a guide Trustees could offer them at £5 a copy or £10 for the three. Judging by demand they will be made available at the Annual Service sales table on Sunday 12th June 2016.

If you are unable to attend the Service and would like one or more by post in June please indicate on the form below:

The Story of the Chapel

This is a short film made in 2000 featuring the way the Chapel came into being and narrated by Colin Baker (former Dr Who) and scripted by Angela Perry.

The Dedication of the Falkland Islands Memorial Chapel on November 18th 1999

This is one for the families who attended 16 years ago; Considering its conversion the quality is pretty good for most of it and it brings back so many memories; it also includes a pre-Service Press Conference led by the late Admiral Sir 'Sandy' Woodward in the Chapel foyer and a moving Address delivered by the late Admiral Sir Henry Leach. Other cameos include family members looking for their kneelers and the names of their loved ones on the Memorial Wall.

(Time : 2 hours)

Songs of Praise

Made by the BBC in the 20th Anniversary Year it takes place in the Chapel and also features the Service in the Falkland Islands; anyone who was there may be interested.

Remember all those rehearsals! And we all look so much younger.
