O taste and see – Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872 – 1958)

O taste and see how gracious the Lord is,
Blessed is the man that trusteth in him

Psalms 34:1

THE HYMN

Fanfare

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed,
Without our aid he did us make;
We are his folk, he doth us feed,
And for his sheep he doth us take.

Choir only verse 3

O enter then his gates with praise, Approach with joy his courts unto;
Praise, laud and bless his name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good;
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

Fanfare

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom heaven and earth adore,
From men and from the angel-host
Be praise and glory evermore.
Amen.

William Kethe (d.1594)
(Verse 5 added c.1861)

THE BIDDING

by
The Reverend Neil Jeffers
Chaplain of Pangbourne College

We have come together in the presence of Almighty God to offer him our worship, praise and thanksgiving.
On this day when we remember the end of hostilities
we particularly give thanks for those men and women who gave their lives in the Falklands in 1982.

Holding in mind those who suffered and died,
we pray for those still scarred by the conflict, and all who grieve for those they love.
We earnestly ask God for peace and reconciliation wherever in the world there is violence and bloodshed.
And we pledge ourselves to work and pray that justice with peace may prevail throughout the world.

THE HYMN

I vow to thee my country, all earthly things above,
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love:
The love that asks no question: the love that stands the test.
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;
We may not count her armies: we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.

Sir Cecil Spring Rice (1859-1918)

Wisdom 3:1 – 9

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them.

² In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died,
and their departure was thought to be an affliction,

³ and their going from us to be their destruction;
but they are at peace.

⁴ For though in the sight of men they were punished, their hope is full of immortality.

⁵ Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good,
because God tested them and found them worthy of himself;

⁶ like gold in the furnace he tried them,
and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them.

⁷ In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble.

⁸ They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them for ever.

⁹ Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love,
because grace and mercy are upon his elect,
and he watches over his holy ones.

And I saw a new Heaven – Edgar L Bainton (1880 – 1956)

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth:
for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away;
and there was no more sea.

And I, John, saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven,
prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of Heaven, saying,
Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes;
and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain:
for the former things are passed away.

(Revelation 21)

Brother of Corporal Raymond E Armstrong 22 SAS 1982

John 14:1 – 6

‘Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. ² My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? ³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. ⁴ You know the way to the place where I am going.’

⁵ Thomas said to him, ‘Lord, we don’t know where you are going, so how can we know the way?’

⁶ Jesus answered, ‘I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.’

THE ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

led by

Commodore Barry Bryant CVO Royal Navy
Lynx Flight Commander HMS Brilliant 1982

“They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old, Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
we will remember them.”

THE FALKLANDS HYMN

We entrust to the Lord our lost brothers.
They responded to duty's stern call,
And so far from their homes and their loved ones
Paid the price that is highest of all.
Flesh had failed them, but God was their saviour,
Bringing rescue from battle's alarms;
Beyond death he is always their refuge,
Underneath, everlasting, his arms.

We commend to the Lord those who mourn them,
Loving parents and children and wives,
For whom pride in their selfless commitment
Has been countered by grief for lost lives.
When so many returned, theirs were absent,
Leaving long years of anguish to face;
May the Lord heal the wounds of bereavement
With the infinite power of his grace.

We commit to the Lord now our own lives,
And we vow in our turn to reply
To the call of the weak and the friendless,
Though the cost to ourselves may be high.
When the choosing is hard, may God grant us
The direction that strengthens and calms.
For we trust in the Lord as our refuge,
Underneath, everlasting, his arms.

THE HYMN

(During which a collection will be taken for the Chapel Trust.
See the end of this order of service if you would like to donate online)

All my hope on God is founded;
He doth still my trust renew,
Me through change and chance he guideth,
Only good and only true.
God unknown, He alone
Calls my heart to be his own.

Pride of man and earthly glory,
Sword and crown betray his trust;
What with care and toil he buildeth,
Tower and temple, fall to dust.
But God's power, Hour by hour,
Is my temple and my tower.

God's great goodness aye endureth,
Deep his wisdom, passing thought:
Splendour, light and life attend him,
Beauty springeth out of naught.
Evermore, From his store
New-born worlds rise and adore.

Still from man to God eternal Sacrifice of praise be done,
High above all praises praising
For the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call, One and all:
Ye who follow shall not fall.

THE PRAYERS

led by the Reverend David Cooper
2nd Battalion, Parachute Regiment 1982

Let us pray for all who continue to suffer as a result of the Falkland Islands War, and ask that God may give them peace.

For those who lost loved ones, continuing in their grief and the sadness of their loss;

Lord, hear us
All: Lord, graciously hear us

For those whose life has been scarred by the conflict; those who have been injured in body and mind; and for those who have found it difficult to work since, praying for their healing;

Lord, hear us
All: Lord, graciously hear us

For all members of the armed forces, the Merchant Service and all seafarers who are in danger this day, remembering family, friends, and all who pray for their safe return;

Lord, hear us
All: Lord, graciously hear us

For peacemakers and peacekeepers, who seek to keep this world secure and free;

Lord, hear us
All: Lord, graciously hear us

For all who bear the burden and privilege of leadership, political, military, and religious, asking for the gifts of wisdom and resolve in the search for reconciliation and peace;

Lord, hear us
All: Lord, graciously hear us

O God of truth and justice, we hold before you those whose memory we cherish. Help us to lift our eyes above the torment of this broken world, and grant us the grace to pray for those who wish us harm. As we honour the past, may we put our faith in your future, for you are the source of life and hope, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

THE PRAYER OF THE SOUTH ATLANTIC MEDAL ASSOCIATION

Almighty God, maker of the earth and sky and sea, we give thanks for the freedom in which we enjoy the beauty of the created world; and we remember with gratitude and humility those of our number who paid that freedom's price. May not only our memories, but our commitment to and through our association, further the cause of justice, freedom and peace in our country and in the world.
In the name of the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ. Amen.

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom,
 the power and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Remain sitting or kneeling to sing

O Trinity of love and power,
Our brethren shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect them whereso'er they go;
And ever let there rise to thee
Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

THE BLESSING

led by the Chaplain

God give to you and to those you love, in this world and the next,
his comfort and his peace;
his light and his joy;
and the blessing of God Almighty the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit rest upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

Stand to sing:

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

Fanfare

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save The King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us;
God save The King!

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign:
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice
God save The King!
